The Rock Star Stories Now Available on OSTN!

Boca Raton, Fl. March 13,2007 – Music and pop culture television show Swept Away Tv- The Rock Star Stories announced today that their program will now be available on OSTN, the leading provider of educational and foreign language IPTV content and student-produced programming.

“As a college student myself, I couldn’t be more excited about our show airing on the OSTN” said Zac Rich, host/producer. “OSTN is an awesome concept that will enable students to view our award winning show on a global scale. This kind of exposure to our own student-peers and to the entertainment industry is invaluable to us.”

OSTN was launched in 2005 with the only 24-hour, seven-day global channel exclusively devoted to student-produced programming. It is delivered to 41 million users at 4,500 university member campuses and 36 countries around the globe. In 2006, OSTN added CableTV, which delivers educational and foreign language TV channels to colleges and universities.

Swept Away TV-The Rock Star Stories is written, edited, filmed, directed and produced by a student team of volunteers. The not for profit show has been on the air for 7 seasons, a total of 165 episodes. The show is well known in the music community for interviews with emerging artists, most of whom have gone on to become huge stars. To date Swept Away TV student staff members have done more than 500 interviews.
